FACTS AND CIRCUMSTANCES REGARDING PROBABLE CAUSE

6. On November 22, 2019, investigators responded to a report of a bank robbery at Key Bank, located at 1411 Columbia Road, Westlake, Ohio, located in the Northern District of Ohio (Key Bank). The victim teller advised that on November 22, 2019, a white male, later identified as Andrew J. Dillingham (Dillingham), entered the Key Bank with a dark hooded sweatshirt and dark beanie cap pulled over his head. Dillingham walked over to a teller counter and provided a teller with a demand note demanding money and indicating he had a gun. The victim teller retained the note, which said, "This is a robbery put 20 50 100 in envolpole (sic) I have a gun make it quick." The victim teller, after reading the demand note, provided Dillingham with $2,670.00 in United States currency. The victim teller described Dillingham as an olive skinned white male, medium build, in his 40s and approximately 5'6", wearing a dark hooded sweatshirt and dark beanie.

7. On November 22, 2019, investigators received from Key Bank an audit sheet of the victim teller's account that was conducted after the robbery by a Key Bank employee. The balance sheet listed the loss from the robbery as $2,670.00 in United States Currency.

8. On November 22, 2019, an Ohio State Highway Patrol cruiser was conducting a check at the rest stop located at the Erie Islands Service Plaza near mile post 100 westbound. The Trooper saw a red BMW X3 bearing New York front registration CGA7870 backed into a parking space. The Trooper ran the plate and determined the registration did not match the vehicle and that the rear plate, New York registration CYZ8149, did not match the vehicle nor the front plate. Upon further inspection, the VIN plate was obscured by a tollway ticket. The Trooper then saw someone sleeping inside the vehicle. The Trooper later ran the VIN of the vehicle and discovered it was reported stolen out of Vermont and that the person who was sleeping in the vehicle was Andrew J. Dillingham, who had an active bank robbery warrant out of Bellows Falls, Vermont. The Trooper placed Dillingham under arrest for Receipt of Stolen Property.

9. Investigators with the Westlake Police Department were notified of Dillingham's arrest and noted he matched the physical description of the bank robbery suspect from the robbery of the Key Bank on November 22, 2019. On November 26, 2019, investigators with the Westlake Police Department and FBI Violent Crime Task Force conducted an interview of Dillingham during which he signed a waiver of his Miranda Rights and spoke with investigators. Investigators asked Dillingham about and showed Dillingham pictures of the Key Bank robbery in Westlake, Ohio, on November 22, 2019. Dillingham confessed to the robbery, admitting it was him in the photographs but stated he did not recall conducting the robbery. Additionally, Dillingham signed a surveillance photo from the robbery and wrote an apology note to the teller of the bank.

10. After Dillingham admitted to the November 22, 2019 Key Bank robbery, Dillingham confessed to two other robberies from November 18 and 19, 2019, in Bellows Falls, Vermont and Guilderland, NY. Dillingham stated he had a bad heroin, meth, and bath salt habit which cost him approximately $200.00 per day.

11. On November 25, 2019, investigators received consent to search from the registered owner of the stolen vehicle where Dillingham was found. In the vehicle investigators found and seized a pair of dark gloves with a red dye stain and as well as a grey beanie which matched those seen in surveillance photos from Key Bank.

12. Affiant is aware that all of the deposits at the aforementioned banks were, at the time of these robberies, and remain, insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC).

CONCLUSION

13. Based on the foregoing facts, Affiant has probable cause to believe that on or about November 22, 2019, Andrew J. Dillingham did, by force, violence, and intimidation, take from the victim tellers bank monies belonging to, or in the care, custody, control, or possession of the aforementioned Key Bank located in the Northern District of Ohio, the deposits of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), in violation of Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 2113(a).
